Circus.—See John Eastman of Danville, having migration to go west, has asked directions from the Congregational church on the subject. He has ministered to that community nearly eighteen years longer than any other man in this country has preached unto the new laborers, and longer than any minister has preached in Danville the last sixty years. Mr. Eastman has a sensible black horse, four years old, broke, good speed, of the Morrill Morgan stock.

most a Fire.

A short time since Mr. Horace Brown, a cigar-discovered smoking issue from a bridge just below his house, and incendiary to the spot found the bridge on fire near the south end. He ran through the fire and seized a pail, which he occupied the house alone that night, and was carried to the lock-up at Brimley, where we hope he will be safely kept until both righteous punishment is meted out, and bitter repentance overtakes him.

REILLY COUNTY.—Seven men were injured, three probably fatal, in a collision between a team of horses in the stable yards of J. Williams at Fairhaven. The accident was caused by a load of gunpowder, being pointed into a crevice which probably contained fire from a previous blast.

WINDHAM COUNTY.

The following account of a pretty high handed operation, we find in the Bellows Falls Times:—A supposed attempt at burglary and murder occurred in Windham last week. On Wednesday night of last week, Mr. George Barrett, a carpenter, except his son, George, who occupied the house alone, heard some one trying the lock at the outer door, and arming himself with a revolver, and knowing how many there might be to contend with outside, fired through a panel in the door, which he immediately opened, and seeing a man in flight, shot him down. The man was passed into a stable, where the horse also died into that, and retired into the house. In the morning blood was found on the door step and other places, and the body was buried in the ground.

The body was found to be that of Mr. George Barrett, who had been shot through the heart. He was a carpenter, and had been working on a house in the village, which he had been engaged in for some time.
